

The Hamptons To Host Hospital Gala

Pittsboro, N.C. –The Hamptons, a luxury community near Jordan Lake, is pleased to announce its participation in North Carolina Children’s Hospital’s third annual gala entitled Run for the Promise – A Kentucky Derby Celebration. The community will host hundreds of guests from across the state on Saturday, May 2nd at the Historic Homeplace at The Hamptons. All proceeds from the Gala will benefit North Carolina Children’s Hospital.

The Run for the Promise Gala will combine the elegance of the Kentucky Derby with exciting entertainment. Guests will enjoy heavy hors d’oeuvres and cocktails fitting with the Derby theme, music, dancing, lawn games, a silent auction, and plasma screens broadcasting the “Run for the Roses.”

"I am inspired by all the folks who have stepped forward to assist us in this cause," said Rex Vick, Jr., CEO of Windjam Development and developer of The Hamptons. "It is a testament to what the Children's Hospital symbolizes—not just in this area but throughout the state. We’re confident that we can reach our fundraising goal and raise awareness for this remarkable institution.”
